

DOCKET NO: CV-97-0573622-S : SUPERIOR COURT
SHEILA JACKSON : JD OF HARTFORD
VS. : AT HARTFORD
ROBERT SMITH : DECEMBER 10, 1999

ARBITRATOR'S AWARD

After having heard this matter on November 12, 1999, I decide as follows:

1. On July 10, 1996, Plaintiff Sheila Jackson was walking across Stratford Avenue, Bridgeport (a two lane one way street).

2. Slightly before she was halfway across Stratford Avenue, Plaintiff was struck by a gray 1987 Subaru driven by Defendant Robert Smith (now deceased).

3. When the impact took place, there was no other traffic.

4. The impact took place at approximately 2:00 p.m.

5. The weather was clear and sunny.

6. Defendant ran over Plaintiff's left foot, leaving tire tread marks.

7. Plaintiff incurred $3,635.02 in medical expenses.

8. Plaintiff lost $228.00 in wages for the three days she could not work.

9. Plaintiff is not able to jog, dance or walk as well as she could prior to the accident.

10. Plaintiff feels the weather in her ankle. At the time of the hearing she accurately predicted rain.

11. Plaintiff has suffered damages of $19,000.00 as a result of Defendant's actions and shall recover that amount from Defendant (plus costs).
